

Journal Index
Updated to September/October 2001

AD—ADDICTIONS

- “The primal roots of addiction,” [book review] Barbara Fulton, September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 17.
“Q&A: Common questions about seniors, mental health and addiction,” May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 14.
[Q&A] “Common questions about mental health and addiction problems among youth,” September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 14.
“Changing addictive behaviour means more than advocating abstinence,” [book review] Barbara Fulton, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 15.
“Unusual addictions,” Cindy McGlynn, March/April 2000, 3:2, p. 10.

AD:1—Alcohol

- “Exploring the joys of drinking: Pleasure is a neglected area of research,” Andrew Johnson, September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 8.
“Coalition unites to solve island’s alcohol problems,” Penny Stuart, March/April 1999, 2:2, p. 4.
“Sleep disturbances studied in alcoholics,” Don Barrie, May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 3.
“Aboriginal communities participate in policies to reduce harmful drinking,” René Lauzon, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 5.
“Aboriginal drinking patterns in Canada similar to Australia,” Diana Ballon, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 5.
“The ethics of working for the alcohol industry: A personal view,” Eric Single, March/April 2000, 3:2, p. 1.

AD:1a—Alcohol and Violence

- “Placing blame for drunken violence,” Anita Dubey, November/December 1998, 1:2, p. 5.
“Violence in bars: Can it be reduced?” Anita Dubey, November/December 1998, 1:2, p. 10.

AD:1b—Fetal Alcohol Syndrome (also under Mental Illness: Disorders)

- “Fetal alcohol syndrome: How much alcohol is too much?” Chris Hendry, May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 5.

AD:1c—Impaired Driving

- “Impaired drivers sentenced to get help,” Myles Magner, September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 6.
“Report card on Canada’s drunk driving initiatives,” Sue McCluskey, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 4.
“Drunk drivers who kill: finding ways to make them stop,” Angela Pirisi, March/April 2000, 3:2, p. 3

AD:2—Caffeine

- Unusual addictions,” Cindy McGlynn, March/April 2000, 3:2, p. 10.

AD:3—Cocaine

- “Task force proposes harm reduction kits for crack users,” Angela Bianchi, May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 9.
“Drug may one day help reduce cravings to cocaine,” Anita Dubey, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 3.

AD:4—Ecstasy

- “Quality of “love” drugs at raves is declining – and so is rave culture,” Gerry Luciano, November/December 1999, 2:6, p. 3.
- “Ecstatic about ecstasy – but at what cost?” Anita Dubey, September/October 2000, 3:5, p. 4.

AD:5—Gambling

- “Gambling’s Impacts,” Chris Hendry, September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 5.
- “Gambling prevention for teens,” Chris Hendry, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 8.
- “Losing may be the best way to prevent gambling addictions,” Anita Dubey, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 4.
- “The Internet provides gambling opportunities—and solutions,” Mark Crane, November/December 1999, 2:6, p. 5.
- “Gambling is an invisible illness, until it wreaks havoc on the family finances,” Tamsen Tillson, July/August 2000, 3:4, p. 13.
- “Betting the house,” [book review] Roberta Boughton, July/August 2000, 3:4 p. 15.
- “Don’t leave it to Chance: a guide for families of problem gamblers,” [book review] Shawn Winsor, March/April 2001, 4:2, p. 14.

AD:6—Heroin

- “Heroin as treatment: Group to propose clinical trials,” Kalyani Vittala, March/April 1999, 2:2, p. 9.
- “Stopping time with heroin,” [book review] Andrew Johnson, March/April 2000, 3:2 p. 15.
- “Expert warns of the politics of prescribing heroin”, Nate Hendley, September/October 2001, 4:5, p. 3

AD:6a—Methadone

- “Mixed response to prison methadone program,” Diana Ballon, November/December 1998, 1:2, p. 5.
- “MDs use health clinic to deliver methadone: Clients benefit from access to counselling,” Tamsen Tillson, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 5.
- “Alternatives to methadone offer heroin addicts options—but in Canada?” Christa Haanstra, November/December 1999, 2:6, p. 4.

AD:7—Internet Addiction Disorder

- “The Internet: On-line therapy or addicUtion?” Paul Jay, January/February 2000, 3:1, p. 10.

AD:8—Marijuana (Cannabis)

- “The politics of pot: The move to decriminalize makes for strange political bedfellows,” September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 18.
- “Fair and balanced information on cannabis,” Kevin O’Brien Fehr, PhD [book review], May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 15.
- “Marijuana policy changing,” Chris Hendry, July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 5.
- “Billion dollar crop,” Gary Bell [film review], November/December 1999, 2:6, p. 15.
- “A world going to pot,” Benedikt Fisher, Liam Romalis, [book review] May/June 2000, 3:3, p. 15.
- “Critics blast a study blaming heart attacks on marijuana,” Nate Hendley, July/August 2000, 3:4, p. 4.

AD:9—Tobacco/Smoking

- “Workplace smoking: A time bomb?” Alwyn Robertson, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 16.
“WHO calls for tougher cigarette regulations,” Angela Bianchi, July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 5.
“Nicotine and public health explores tobacco alternatives,” Joan Brewster, [book review] July/August, 2001, 4:4, p. 15.
“Smokers’ helplines increase people’s chances of butting out”, Mark Witten, September/October 2001, 4:5, p. 5.

AD:10—Other:

- “Unusual addictions,” Cindy McGlynn, March/April 2000, 3:2, p. 10.

“About last night. Beliefs about alcohol predict risky sex,” Ian Kinross, July/August 2001, 4:4, p. 12.

“Intoxicated by water – a disorder among chronic psychiatric clients,” Vicki O’Brien, September/October 2000, 3:5, p. 5.

AD:11—LEGAL DRUGS

- “Prescription for trouble: when caregivers turn to drugs,” Stephen Nicholls, January/February 2000, 4:1, p. 12.

AD:ASD—ASSESSMENT/DIAGNOSIS

- “GPs don’t properly assess for addictions,” Angela Gordon, May/June 2001, 4:3, p. 12.

AD:CD—CONCURRENT DISORDERS (also under Mental Illness: Disorders)

- “Focus on concurrent disorders,” Feature Section, September/October 1998, 1:1, pp. 13-16.
“Does harm reduction have a place in treating concurrent disorders?” Julia Drake, September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 13.
“Combined programs address multiple needs,” Penny Stuart, September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 14.
“Finding psychiatric disorders in addicted clients,” Anita Dubey, September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 14.
“Separate treatments ineffective, expert says,” Kalyani Vittala, September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 15.
“Consumer voices: Kathy’s story,” Anonymous, September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 15.
“Q&A: Answers to common questions on concurrent disorders,” September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 16.
“HIV clients and concurrent disorders,” Wayne Skinner [book review], July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 15.
“Results of group CBT study show promise,” Christa Haanstra, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 3.
“Concurrent eating disorders and substance use challenge the therapist,” Angela Pirisi, May/June 2001, 4:3, p. 3.
“Clinicians address the powerful link between substance abuse and brain injury,” Ian Kinross, May/June 2001, 4:3, p. 10.

AD:DC—DRUG CONTROL AND AWARENESS

- “U.S. anti-drug ads,” Craig Smith, September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 7.
“The brewing revolution,” Barbara Fulton [book review], March/April 1999, 2:2, p. 15.
“Report finds no change in illicit drug use in Toronto,” Dolores Sedore, May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 5.
“Ontario schools to include more drug and alcohol information,” Don Barrie, July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 3.

“WHO calls for tougher cigarette regulations,” Angela Bianchi, July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 5.
 “Changing addictive behaviour means more than advocating abstinence,” Barbara Fulton [book review], September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 15.
 “Ontario youth increase their substance abuse,” Christa Haanstra, January/February 2000, 3:1, p. 5.
 “Howell used humour to get ‘close enough to the truth’ of addiction,” Wayne However, M.D.,” November/December 2000, 3:6, p. 5.
 “The addict as TV entertainment,” Kalyani Vittawa, November/December 2000, 3:6, p. 10.
 “Promoting drinking without thinking,” Angela Pirisi, November/December 2000, 3:6, p. 11.
 [Q & A] “Media portrayals of mental health and addition problems,” Diana Ballon, November/December 2000, 3:6, p. 14.
 “The continuum of pain and addiction,” Tamsen Tillson, March/April 2001, 4:2, p. 12.
 “Expert warns of the politics of prescribing heroin”, Nate Hendley, September/October, 4:5, p. 3.

AD:ETH—ETHICAL AND MORAL ISSUES

“Workplace smoking: A time bomb?” Alwyn Robertson, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 16.
 “Fair and balanced information on cannabis,” Kevin O’Brien Fehr, PhD [book review], May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 15.
 “Ethics of working for the alcohol industry: a personal view,” Eric Single, PhD, March/April 2000, 3:2, p. 16.
 “To tell or not to tell” [focus on therapists], Lisa Schmidt, September/October 2001, 4:5, pp.10-11.

AD:GLO—GLOBAL ISSUES

“Aboriginal drinking patterns in Canada similar to Australia,” Diana Ballon, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 5.
 “Billion dollar crop,” Gary Bell [film review], November/December 1999, 2:6, p. 15.

AD:HIV—HIV/AIDS

“Mixed response to prison methadone program,” Diana Ballon, November/December 1998, 1:2, p. 5.
 “Women and AIDS,” Robin Forbes, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 15.
 “HIV clients and concurrent disorders,” Wayne Skinner [book review], July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 15.
 “Sexually speaking – how to open up public discussion of HIV/AIDS in India without invoking political gunfire,” Lori McDougall, July/August 2001, 4:4, p. 16.

AD:LEG—LEGAL ISSUES

“Placing blame for drunken violence,” Anita Dubey, November/December 1998, 1:2, p. 5.
 “Focus on treatment vs. punishment,” [Feature Section], January/February 1999, 2:1, pp. 11-14.
 “Criminal system begins to recognize health issues,” Kalyani Vittala, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 11.
 “Q&A: Facts on addiction, mental health and crime,” January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 14.
 “Workplace smoking: A time bomb?” Alwyn Robertson, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 16.
 “The brewing revolution,” Barbara Fulton [book review], March/April 1999, 2:2, p. 15.
 “Fair and balanced information on cannabis,” Kevin O’Brien Fehr, PhD [book review], May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 15.
 “WHO calls for tougher cigarette regulations,” Angela Bianchi, July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 5.
 “Marijuana policy changing,” Chris Hendry, July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 5.

“Would mandatory addictions treatment work for people on welfare,” Chris Higgins, July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 16.

“Getting tough about crime: Is change to federal law the solution?” Linda Baker, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 16.

“Billion dollar crop,” Gary Bell [film review], November/December 1999, 2:6, p. 15.

AD:LEG:1—Drug Courts

“Drug court diverts offenders to treatment,” Craig Smith, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 12.

“Poor minorities victimised in the war on drugs,” September/October 2000, 3:5, p. 10.

AD:LEG:2—Law Enforcement

“Impaired drivers sentenced to get help,” Myles Magner, September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 6.

“Police officer calls for harm reduction,” Mark Crane, November/December 1998, 1:2, p. 4.

“Mixed response to prison methadone program,” Diana Ballon, November/December 1998, 1:2, p. 5.

“Criminal system begins to recognize health issues,” Kalyani Vittala, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 11.

“Forcing welfare recipients into drug testing and treatment – the North American experience,” Debrah Etsten and Diana Ballon, March/April 2001, 4:2, p. 4.

AD:LEG:3—Prison

Meditation behind bars,” Tamsen Tillson, March/April 2000, 3:2, p. 12.

AD:LEG:4—Reform

“The politics of pot: The move to decriminalize makes for strange political bedfellows,” September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 18.

“Criminal system begins to recognize health issues,” Kalyani Vittala, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 11.

“Drug court diverts offenders to treatment,” Craig Smith, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 12.

“Marijuana policy changing,” Chris Hendry, July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 5.

“Getting tough about crime: Is change to federal law the solution?” Linda Baker, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 16.

“Fighting traffic, Gil Puder – in memorium,” Honey Fisher, March/April 2000, 3:2, p. 5.

“Canada’s first “safer injection room stalled,” Betsy Trumpener, November/December 2000, 3:6, p. 4.

“Controversial proposed legislation heightens stigma,” Deborah Etsen, November/December 2000, 3:6, p. 8.

“American criticism of Dutch drug policy unfounded,” Fredrick Polak, M.D., January/February 2001, 4:1, p. 16.

“Forcing welfare recipients into drug testing and treatment – the North American experience,” Debrah Etsten and Diana Ballon, March/April 2001, 4:2, p. 4.

“The father of Canadian psychiatry: Joseph Workman,” Shawn Winsor, [book review] March/April 2001, 4:2, p. 14.

“Ontario’s Bill 159, an affront to clients’ privacy,” Lori Stoltz, May/June 2001, 4:3, p. 16.

AD:MED—MEDIA

- “The addict as TV entertainment,” Kylani Vittala, November/December 2000, 3:6, p. 10.
“Promoting drinking without thinking,” Angela Pirisi, November/December 2000, 3:6, p. 11.
[Q & A] “Media portrayals of mental and addiction problems,” November/December 2000, 3:6, p. 14.

AD:PRE—PREVENTION

- “Gambling prevention for teens,” Chris Hendry, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 8.
“Changing addictive behaviour means more than advocating abstinence,” Barbara Fulton [book review], September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 15.
“Medical marijuana: the controversy continues,” Christa Haanstra, May/June 2000, 3:3, p. 3.
“American criticism of Dutch drug policy unfounded,” Fredrick, M.D., January/February 2001, 4:1, p. 16.
“Smokers’ helplines increase people’s chances of butting out”, September/October 2001, 4:5, p. 5.

AD:RES—RESEARCH

- “Transforming the funding of medical research,” Deborah Etsten, January/February 2000, 3:1, p. 4.
“Critics blast a study blaming heart attacks on marijuana,” Nate Hendley, July/June, 3:4, p. 4.

AD:SEXUALITY

- [Q & A] “Where sexuality, addiction and mental health intersect,” Diana Ballon, July/August 2001, 4:4, p. 13.

AD:SP—SPECIAL POPULATIONS*AD:SP:1—Aboriginal Issues

- “Aboriginal communities participate in policies to reduce harmful drinking,” René Lauzon, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 5.
“Aboriginal drinking patterns in Canada similar to Australia,” Diana Ballon, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 5.
“Program nurtures a native identity, helping to prevent addictions,” Paul Jay, September/October 2000, 3:5, p. 13.

AD:SP:2—Children

- “Breaking the cycle of substance abuse: Altering children’s fate,” Rodrigue Paré and Mirella De Civita, May/June 1999, p. 16.
[Q & A] “Common questions about mental health and addiction problems in school-aged children,” September/October 2000, 3:5, p. 14.

AD:SP:3—Family

- “Breaking the cycle of substance abuse: Altering children’s fate,” Rodrigue Paré and Mirella De Civita, May/June 1999, p. 16.
“Working with the family to break the addiction cycle,” Nancy Deutsch, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 13.
[Q & A] “Common questions about the family of people with mental health and/or addiction problems,” Diana Ballon, July/August 2000, 3:4, p. 14.

AD:SP:4—Youth (Teens/Adolescents)

- “Gambling prevention for teens,” Chris Hendry, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 8.
- “Rural teens produce harm reduction magazine,” Chris Hendry, March/April 1999, 2:2, p. 5.
- “Ontario schools to include more drug and alcohol information,” Don Barrie, July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 3.
- “Focus on youth,” [Feature Section], September/October 1999, 2:5, pp. 11-14.
- “Getting high doesn’t have to involve drugs,” Pam Harrison, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 12.
- “Working with the family to break the addiction cycle,” Nancy Deutsch, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 13.
- [Q&A] “Common questions about mental health and addiction problems among youth,” September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 14.
- “Getting tough about crime: Is change to federal law the solution?” Linda Baker, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 16.
- “Quality of “love” drugs at raves is declining – and so is rave culture,” Gerry Luciano, November/December 1999, 2:6, p. 3.
- “Ontario youth increase their substance abuse,” Christa Haanstra, January/February 2000, 3:1, p. 5.
- “Street-involved youth and addictions,” Cindy McGlynn, January/February 2000, 3:1, p. 11.

AD:SP:5—Ethnocultural Issues (Ethnic Minorities)

- “Ethnocultural diversity,” [Feature Section], July/August 1999, 2:4, pp. 11-14.
- “Substance abuse and cultural communities: Mainstream services inaccessible to non-English clients,” Cindy McGlynn, July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 12.
- “Q&A: Common questions about ethnocultural diversity,” July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 14.
- “Khat: harmless stimulant or addictive drug?” Amber Narsrulla, May/June 2000, 3:3, p. 5.
- “Exploring ethnocultural factors”, [Book Review], Gloria Chaim, September/October 2001, 4:5, p. 15.

AD:SP:6—Lesbian/Gay/Bisexual

- “The double bind of stigma and substance abuse lesbian and bisexual women are underserved,” Kalyani Vittala, May/June 2000, 3:3, p. 11.
- “Gay teens feel isolated and alone. And the stress is taking its toll,” Andrea Gordon, July/August 2001, 4:4, p. 11.

AD:SP:7—Men

AD:SP:8—Rural and Remote Populations

- “Coalition unites to solve island’s alcohol problems,” Penny Stuart, March/April 1999, 2:2, p. 4.
- “Rural teens produce harm reduction magazine,” Chris Hendry, March/April 1999, 2:2, p. 5.

AD:SP:9—Seniors and Aging

- “Focus on seniors,” [Feature Section], May/June 1999, 2:3, pp. 11-14.
- “Workshop offers discussion of seniors, substance abuse,” Tamsen Tillson, May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 11.
- “Few addictions services for seniors,” Tamsen Tillson, May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 11.

“Investing in our future,” Tamsen Tillson, May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 12.
[Q&A] “Common questions about seniors, mental health and addiction,” May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 14.

AD:SP:10—Women and Mothers

“Women and AIDS,” Robin Forbes, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 15.
“Drawing pregnant users into treatment,” Eleanor LeBourdais, March/April 1999, 2:2, p. 5.
“Ushering in a new approach to women and addictions,” Honey Fisher, January/February 2000, 3:1, p. 4.
“Alcohol’s siege on women’s health,” Angela Pirisi, May/June 2000, 3:3, p. 13.
[Q & A] “Common questions about mental health and addiction problems affecting women,” Mark de la Hey, Diana Ballon, May/June 2000, 3:3, p. 14.

AD:ST—STIGMA

“The stigma of substance abuse,” Cherie-Lynn Knight, September/October 2000, 3:5, p. 16.
“Controversial proposed legislation heightens stigma,” Deborah Esten, November/December 2000, 3:6, p. 8.

AD:TR—TREATMENT AND RECOVERY

“A meaningful job as relapse prevention,” Cindy McGlynn, March/April 1999, 2:2, p. 13.
“Courage to Come Back awards given,” Christa L. Haanstra, May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 4.
“Would mandatory addictions treatment work for people on welfare,” Chris Higgins, July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 16.
“Results of group CBT study show promise,” Christa Haanstra, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 3.
“Aboriginal communities participate in policies to reduce harmful drinking,” René Lauzon, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 5.
“Moving beyond the mainstream,” [Feature Section], November/December 1999, 2:6, pp. 11-14.
“Ushering in a new approach to women and addictions,” Honey Fisher, January/February 2000, 3:1, p. 4.
“Falling through the cracks,” [Feature Section], January/February 2000, 3:1, pp. 11-14.
“Street-involved youth and addictions,” Cindy McGlynn, January/February 2000, 3:1, p. 11.
[Q&A] “Common questions about ‘falling through the cracks’,” Diana Ballon, January/February 2000, 3:1, p. 14.
[Q & A] “Common questions about people recovering from addictions and turning to work,” Andrea Gordon, January/February 2001, 4:1, p. 14.
“Narrative means to sober ends: treatment addiction and its aftermath,” Shawn Windor, [book review] March/April 2001, 4:2, p. 14.
“When things fall apart,” Shawn Winsor, [book review] March/April 2001, 4:2, p. 14.
“Exploring ethnocultural factors”, Gloria Chaim, [Book Review], September/October 2001, 4:5, p. 15.

AD:TR:1—Addictions Medicine

“Mixed response to prison methadone program,” Diana Ballon, November/December 1998, 1:2, p. 5.
“MDs use health clinic to deliver methadone: Clients benefit from access to counselling,” Tamsen Tillson, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 5.
“Epilepsy medication could help drug users,” Anita Dubey, January/February 1999, 2:1, p. 5.

“Heroin as treatment: Group to propose clinical trials,” Kalyani Vittala, March/April 1999, 2:2, p. 9.
“Drug may one day help reduce cravings to cocaine,” Anita Dubey, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 3.
“Alternatives to methadone offer heroin addicts options—but in Canada?” Christa Haanstra, November/December 1999, 2:6, p. 4.
“Q & A: Common questions about benzodiazepine risks,” Andrea Gordon, March/April 2001, 4:2, p. 13.

AD:TR:2—Addictions Services

“Addictions reform calls for local planning,” Myles Magner, March/April 1999, 2:2, p. 3.
“Task force proposes harm reduction kits for crack users,” Angela Bianchi, May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 9.
“Few addictions services for seniors,” Tamsen Tillson, May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 11.
“Substance abuse and cultural communities: Mainstream services inaccessible to non-English clients,” Cindy McGlynn, July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 12.
“Q&A: Common questions about ethnocultural diversity,” July/August 1999, 2:4, p. 14.
“Getting high doesn’t have to involve drugs,” Pam Harrison, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 12.
“Working with the family to break the addiction cycle,” Nancy Deutsch, September/October 1999, 2:5, p. 13.
“The Internet provides gambling opportunities—and solutions,” Mark Crane, November/December 1999, 2:6, p. 5.
“Outreach team saves lives on Vancouver’s skid row,” January/February 2001, 4:1, p. 5.

AD:TR:3—Alternative Therapies

“Moving beyond the mainstream,” [Feature Section], November/December 1999, 2:6, pp. 11-14.
“Teaching addicts to re-establish the body-mind connection,” Celène Adams, November/December 1999, 2:6, p. 12.
“Q&A: Common questions about unconventional therapies,” Diana Ballon, November/December 1999, 2:6, p. 14.

AD:TR:3a—Herbal Medicine

“Herbal remedies have been used for centuries: But scientists are skeptical,” Amber Nasrulla, November/December 1999, 2:6, p. 13.

AD:TR:4—Diet and Nutrition

“Diet for a healthy user: Few addictions programs teach a key component of recovery – healthy eating,” Pam Harrison, September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 11.
“Mood, food and healing,” Karen Harrington, [book review] September/October 2000, 3:5, p. 15.

AD:TR:5—Harm Reduction

“Does harm reduction have a place in treating concurrent disorders?” Julia Drake, September/October 1998, 1:1, p. 13.
“Police officer calls for harm reduction,” Mark Crane, November/December 1998, 1:2, p. 4.
“Rural teens produce harm reduction magazine,” Chris Hendry, March/April 1999, 2:2, p. 5.
“The brewing revolution,” Barbara Fulton [book review], March/April 1999, 2:2, p. 15.
“Task force proposes harm reduction kits for crack users,” Angela Bianchi, May/June 1999, 2:3, p. 9.

“Crack me up” – harm reduction kits for the most marginalized,” Nate Hendley, January/February 2001, 4:1, p. 4.

AD:TR:6—PREVENTION

AD:TR:7—REFORM

Addictions reform calls for local planning,” Myles Magner, March/April 1999, 2:2, p. 3.

“Vancouver family speak out against inadequate treatment for injection drug users, Vicki O’Brien, May/June 2000, 3:3, p. 3.